

STEWARDSHIP PROGRAM

Supporting research that fundamentally affects conservation in West Texas.

The Borderlands Research Institute (BRI) is proud to be the leading source of groundbreaking research in West Texas! The Stewardship Program provides an annual stream of funding that enables us to better help landowners and managers to advance wildlife science and to educate future conservation leaders on a much greater scale.

Please, consider becoming a member of our Stewardship Program.

1) PATRON: $5,000/yr

BENEFITS:

- Friend level benefits (see below), plus:
- Institute Science Team. Opportunity for a personal, half-day, one-on-one visit with a Borderlands Research Institute science team at your ranch to discuss area specific conservation techniques, unique flora and fauna, or a hosted birding tour on your ranch for family and friends.
- Support for Specific Research Programs. With your $5,000 donation, you are able to direct up to $1,000 per year to a specific research program within the Institute. Research programs include Desert Big Game (mule deer, pronghorn, bighorn sheep), Desert Quail (scaled, Gambel's, Montezuma), Carnivores/Nongame (mountain lion, black bear, songbirds), or Rangeland/Habitat (restoration, native seed, prescribed fire).

2) FRIEND: $1,000/yr

BENEFITS:

- Metal Gate Sign. Stating your stewardship of West Texas and support of the Borderlands Research Institute.
- Private Events. Annual VIP invitations and complimentary registration to Institute-hosted events.
- Special Recognition. Institute-hosted events and the Institute's annual report will honor you and recognize your major contribution.
