

Film Screening and Panel Discussion

THE AMERICAN SOUTHWEST

The American Southwest is an adventurous journey down the Colorado River that explores the region's extraordinary wildlife, cultural history, and uncertain future.

OCT. 20, 2025
5:30 - 9:00 PM

MUSEUM OF THE BIG BEND - CULTURAL EVENTS CENTER
400 N Harrison St, Entrance 4, Alpine, TX

FREE ENTRY FOR PUBLIC

Watch the film, then join in a panel discussion exploring how the film's themes resonate with environmental issues and history in West Texas' Chihuahuan Desert. Complimentary drinks and hors-d'oeuvres provided.

CONSERVING THE LAST FRONTIER

THE AMERICAN SOUTHWEST

Panel Discussion and Q&A

Bill Adams, Moderator

Associate Director of Operations
Borderlands Research Institute

Dr. Antonio Cantu de Leija, Panelist

Assistant Professor of Community Ecology
Borderlands Research Institute
Sul Ross State University, Department of Natural Sciences

Dr. Carlos "Lalo" Gonzalez, Panelist

Nau Endowed Professor in Habitat Research and Management and Associate Director of Research
Borderlands Research Institute
Sul Ross State University, Department of Natural Sciences

Dr. Bryon Schroeder, Panelist

Director of Center for Big Bend Studies and Assistant Professor of Anthropology
Sul Ross State University, Department of Behavior and Social Sciences